Important Dates

Welcome Week starts on 15 September 2025 and you should plan to arrive in order to be on campus for the University's introductory events for new students. Tuition commences on 22 September 2025 and your full-time programme will end on 30 September 2026.

Graduation ceremony dates have not yet been finalised, but are usually in the December or January following completion of your programme.

Fees

The fees for this programme are currently set at £30000 for the academic year 2025-26

Fee Information

This offer is made on the understanding that you qualify as an Overseas student for fees purposes. If you have any questions about your eligibility to pay international fees please contact our Fees Assessment Officers at feestat@liverpool.ac.uk

Living costs

The UKVI state that a single person will need a minimum of £1,136 per calendar month to cover the cost of living from 2 January 2025 onwards. You are required to show living costs for 9 months in your maintenance documents for your visa application (£10,224), however you still need to have living costs for further months if your course is longer than 9 months.

If you are planning to bring your family with you then your living costs will increase. This amount may change with new Government guidance - our website will be updated with the latest information.

You can find out more about maintenance amounts on our website.

Fees deposits

As an overseas applicant for postgraduate taught study, you are required to pay a tuition fee deposit to confirm your intention to study at the University. A deposit is required before the University will issue your CAS. The deposit amount is £2,000 and it will be deducted from your tuition fee when you register in September. You are able to pay your deposit even if you are holding a conditional offer. Sponsored applicants and applicants on our Pre-Sessional courses do not need to pay a deposit. The deadline to pay your deposit is 28 June 2025.

If the deposit is not received, you will not receive a CAS and your offer may be withdrawn.

The University's approved payment provider is CIBC. You should make a payment at the payment portal CIBC. You will need your University reference number, which can be found at the top of your offer email.

If your tuition fees are fully funded by a third-party sponsor (a government sponsor, charity, US Federal Loan, commercial organisation, international organisation) or you have been awarded a full scholarship, you must provide written evidence of this or a CAS will not be issued.

Fee Deposit Deadlines

Scholarships

The University offers a range of scholarships and study awards to support postgraduate students including the University of Liverpool Postgraduate Global Advancement Scholarships worth up to £5,000.

If awarded, scholarships are usually issued by way of a reduction to your tuition fees. Amounts and eligibility criteria. Amounts and eligibility criteria for scholarships and awards vary.

Study costs

Liverpool is among the most cost-effective student cities in the UK. You may have some day-to-day costs of studying such as printing, buying books and specialist equipment, or going on field classes. These costs will differ depending on your programme of study and your preferences.

Information about some of the additional costs associated with studying can be found here.

CAS and Student visas

You will receive further information about your CAS only when you have received and accepted an unconditional offer. The Admissions Team will issue a CAS statement no more than 6 months prior to the start date of your programme, as it has a limited validity period. Please note that you will need to meet the requirements set by UK Visas and Immigration. A CAS will only be issued if you have made a Fee Deposit Payment as stated above, unless you can prove you are a Sponsored applicant.

More information about visas, maintenance and the health surcharge.

Immigration Health Surcharge

All students applying to study using a Student visa in the UK must pay an immigration health surcharge. The health surcharge will allow those holding a Student visa to receive most National Healthcare Service (NHS) treatments in the UK for free. At the time of writing (October 2024), the cost of the IHS is as follows:

£776 per year

Prices may change as per UKVI policy. For correct and up to date information, we recommend checking the Gov website prior to submitting your visa application.

The IHS is payable in full when you apply for your visa. If your visa is refused the surcharge payment will be refunded in full.

Discontinued or modified programmes

Whilst the University makes every effort to be able to provide the programmes that it has advertised, there are sometimes occasions when we are unable to offer a programme in an academic year. In some cases, the University may continue to offer a programme, but its content or title may be significantly different from the description of the programme in the University's materials. Where either of these eventualities occur, you or your nominated representative will be contacted straight away to explore the options that are available.

Further details on this are available in the Admissions Policy.

Appeals and complaints procedure

We really hope we have met your expectations so far, and that we continue to do so, but if you are unhappy with your experience there is information about our appeals and complaints policy.

Data protection and your personal information

As a prospective University of Liverpool student, the University will communicate with you in order to provide important messages relating to your application to the University. We have obtained your data via information that you or a third party (your nominated representative) have submitted within your application to the University.

Please see the University's Data Protection webpage for further information about data protection or our Data.

Terms and Conditions

The decision on your application to the University has been taken based upon information you recorded in the application form. Details you provide in the application form are taken to be correct and accurate and should reflect information recorded on any supporting documents you provide with the application. If it is found that the information provided within the application form is incorrect we reserve the right to rescind the offer made to you.

Admissions Policies

By accepting an offer of a place with any university you will be entering into a contractual agreement. You have the right to cancel this contract at any time within the 14 days immediately following your acceptance of the University's offer, without giving any reason. In such a circumstance, you will be entitled to a refund of any deposit or programme fee that you have paid to the University prior to your decision to cancel. All notices of cancellation must be made in writing.

All our terms and conditions are available online.

Admissions support with criminal convictions

If you have any relevant or unspent convictions, we would ask you to let us know by completing our online declaration form. This ensures that we are able to offer the correct level of support to you during the application process.

Declaration form

I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your offer and I can assure you studying at the University of Liverpool will provide you with a life-changing student experience in the vibrant, beautiful city of Liverpool. I look forward to welcoming you to the University. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us using the email address at the top of this letter.

Best wishes
