There may be changes to the content and delivery of the course described in this information, including the possible withdrawal of modules. As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our courses to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, this course may be revised before students enrol and during a student's period of registration; however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our Disclaimer to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student's course.

Conditions of your offer (to be satisfied prior to your enrolment)

Your offer is subject to satisfying the following conditions. Please note that you will not be allowed to enrol on your chosen programme unless all of these condition(s) have been met.

Deposit Condition: Payable after acceptance

Please pay the tuition deposit of £2,000.00 after accepting your offer. You will usually have 8 weeks from accepting your offer to pay your deposit. The deadline date, including how to pay, will be sent to you once you have accepted your offer. This condition will be waived if you submit evidence that you will be fully funded (in receipt of a full scholarship, are sponsored, or if your tuition fees will be fully funded by a government loan scheme)

If you have any questions about your conditions then please contact us by using the Message Us function on your online Applicant Home

Studying in the UK

The University of Southampton has a diverse student community coming from over 135 countries. The University's International Office can provide you with support as you prepare to join the University and when you arrive. Our webpages will provide you with information on coming to study in the UK: <http://www.southampton.ac.uk/international>. If you would like to meet a member of the International Office Team check the website regularly to see when we are visiting your country: <http://www.southampton.ac.uk/meetus>.

Your next steps

- Now that you have an offer to study with us you can access our offer holders' web site. Here you'll have quick access to subjects which applicants tell us they're interested in, including how to accept this offer, how to apply for accommodation, and where relevant, how to improve your English skills, and guidance regarding the UK's student visa system.
- Please read this offer, the Summary of Key Terms and Important Information, and the section entitled "Course Description Document" carefully. If you have a question, please contact us using the details at the foot of this email.
- This offer is valid until the date set out in the heading 'status of this offer' above. Within this timescale please confirm whether you wish to accept this offer via your online Applicant Home: <https://engage-uos.powerappsportals.com>. If you do not accept this offer within this timescale, unfortunately your offer will be withdrawn.
- This offer has been made in accordance with the University's Admissions Policy and its Admission Regulations. Your attention is drawn to both of these documents. In particular, please note that the University may terminate this offer (even after you have accepted it) if the University finds that you have provided fraudulent or misleading information and will inform, where appropriate, professional bodies or third parties about this.
- Your offer is subject to a visa sponsorship assessment, which may have an impact on the University being able to sponsor your studies with us.
- If you believe that you have been wrongly classified for fees purposes, or your offer indicates we have been unable to determine your fees classification, please contact us to discuss this.
- As soon as you are able, please make arrangements to satisfy all of the conditions of your offer in the manner requested. All conditions must be satisfied by the deadlines provided. You will not be allowed to enrol or commence your studies if you have not met all your conditions.
- Should any of your personal details, including your email or postal address change, please notify us via your online Applicant Home at your earliest opportunity.
- If you change your mind after you have accepted your offer, you have the right to cancel this contract with the University within fourteen days of accepting your offer without giving any reason. Our Summary of Key Terms and Important Information sets out how you can exercise this right and states what the effects of this cancellation are on your contract with the University. Please ensure you read through this carefully and we recommend that you keep a copy of this summary for your records.

Congratulations on your offer. I look forward to being able to welcome you to the University of Southampton.

Yours sincerely,

Alistair Logan
Associate Director Admissions and VISAS

Important information about paying your tuition fee deposit

Applicants accepting a place on one of our courses are required to pay a tuition fee deposit as set out under the Deposit Condition. The tuition fee deposit will be offset against your full tuition fees. You can pay via the following method:

Online by Student Web payments: <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/finance/services/make-payments.page>

Please use the "Payments on Account" blue button to pay your tuition fee deposit. You will need to enter your student ID number and date of birth. See your offer letter for your student ID number. For more assistance, please see the help guides available on the Student Web payments page.

Please enter the required amount into 'Tuition Fees' and click the 'Get a quote' button for payment options.

Please note that you will not be invoiced for your tuition fee deposit.

Tuition fee deposit refunds

The tuition fee deposit will only be refunded for one or more of the following reasons:

- If you exercise your right to cancel this contract with the University within fourteen days of accepting your offer (as set out in the Summary of Key Terms and Important Information and this doesn't apply after you enrol with us).
- Where either you or the University are suffering from a continuing force majeure event which means your programme won't proceed or you won't be able to commence your programme (examples of force majeure are as set out in the Summary of Key Terms and Important Information).
- Where the University closes, discontinues or combines a programme of study or otherwise changes a programme of study significantly and you decide to withdraw or you reject our new offer (as set out in the Summary of Key Terms and Important Information).
- If you fail to meet the academic condition of your offer within the meaning set out below.
- If you fail to meet the English language condition of your offer within the meaning set out below.
- If you are refused a visa by UKVI because of a University of Southampton error.
- If you are unable to obtain an ATAS Clearance certificate.

Summary of Key Terms and Important Information can be found here: <https://assets-gbr.mkt.dynamics.com/c2267701-ce81-4d8f-ad2e-467e22f34949/digitalassets/docs/bcadbd64-d971-ef11-a671-000d3ad5b6e1?ts=63861833246000000>

Please note that:

- failing to meet the academic conditions of your offer means that you have continued your course in your home country and have taken the specified academic examinations/tests/assessments after you have accepted your offer but have failed to obtain the required GPA or degree class/grade and your result has not been accepted for entry onto the course that you have been offered.
- failing to meet the English language conditions of your offer means that you have taken one of the University's accepted English language tests after you have accepted your offer and before the language condition deadline and failed to obtain a satisfactory result.

Full documentary evidence will be required of a visa refusal, failure to obtain your degree, achieving a GPA or degree class/grade that does not meet the academic condition of your offer, or an unsatisfactory result for an English language test taken after your offer and before the course start date and language deadline. Refunds will be made in the same way as the deposit is made to comply with the UK's legal requirements.

Please submit your refund requests for all circumstances set out above (other than where the refund is as a result of an action by the University when it will be processed by us), in writing by using the 'Request a Deposit Refund' button on your Applicant Portal by 30 September 2025.

We will act reasonably in determining whether you are eligible for a deposit refund and we will let you know this within 21 days. We will then refund your deposit using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction. All refunds will be calculated in £ Sterling but may be refunded in the currency of the original payment. The University will not refund any shortfalls due to exchange rate fluctuations or offer compensation for any bank or other charges incurred, which could affect the final sum received. No refunds will be made in cash and no interest is paid on returned deposits.

Scholarship Awarded: FEPS - Excellence Scholarship £2500

We are pleased to advise you that you have been awarded the Excellence Scholarship.

This Scholarship is equivalent to the amount of £2500 and is awarded for the first year of study only, unless it expires, or terminates early. This Scholarship opportunity applies to the programme details on this offer letter only

If you do not agree to be bound by these terms and conditions, or you are no longer eligible for this Scholarship because your circumstances have changed, please let us know by sending us notice in writing to: the Admissions Team admissions@southampton.ac.uk. The notice that you are declining

Telephone: 02380 594732 Email: AdmissionsPGT.EPS@southampton.ac.uk Website: <http://www.southampton.ac.uk>

our Scholarship should be received by us no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date of this communication

1 These terms

1.1 Any reference to 'we', 'us' or 'our' in these terms is to the University of Southampton, and any reference to 'you' or 'your' is to the applicant who has received our offer letter; to the Programme is to the programme of study set out in the accompanying offer letter and the Scholarship is to the type of Scholarship and for the amount set out in the accompanying offer letter.

1.2 Whilst we may make changes to the terms applying to our scholarship offers from time to time, these terms will continue to apply to this Scholarship until your Scholarship comes to an end.

1.3 Please ensure you print out or save a copy of these terms and any emails from us for your records.

2 Admission, enrolment, and eligibility

2.1 You must continue to meet the eligibility criteria for this Scholarship for the duration of your studies with us.

2.2 Your Scholarship will only commence after you have successfully enrolled to study with us and at the start of your entry to your Programme in the 2025 academic year. This means that you must be in receipt of an offer to study with us, meet all conditions of entry to your Programme (including providing any documents which you are required to submit to us as proof thereof), pay any deposits to us where required by your Programme, and be classified as an overseas student under rules and regulations for fees classification and be self-funded before your Scholarship will be in force and start.

2.3 You must re-enrol with us when required to do so in any subsequent academic year, on your Programme, for your Scholarship to remain in force and continue.

2.4 If you defer the start of your Programme, you will lose this Scholarship.

2.5 To remain eligible for this Scholarship you must continue to make satisfactory progress on your Programme, and you will not be eligible to receive this Scholarship for any period in which: your Programme is suspended; or you repeat a year of study. You will not be eligible to receive your Scholarship where you secure external funding which would pay for your tuition fees in full. If your external funding together with your Scholarship would exceed the amount of your tuition fees then your Scholarship will be reduced.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Award of Scholarship

3.1 Your Scholarship is provided by way of a fee reduction to your tuition fees due for your Programme and is not paid out or payable to you as a cash alternative.

3.2 Your Scholarship will be apportioned as a percentage of the value of your Scholarship, due for that academic year and applied to your student account as a tuition fee waiver as follows:

Percentage of the value of the Scholarship:

For programmes starting in September: 34% start of October, 33% start of January, 33% start of April

For programmes starting in February: 34% start of February, 33% start of April, 33% start of May

3.3 You remain liable to pay us the balance of your tuition fees (and any interest thereon) which is due for payment, in line with our Fees, Charges and Expenses Regulations (Available as part of the University Calendar at <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/calendar/sectioniv/index.page>.) and remain responsible for all other costs, including accommodation and living costs, associated with your studies.

4 Your obligations arising under this Scholarship

4.1 Your responsibilities to us include being honest and timely when providing us with information concerning your eligibility for the Scholarship, cooperating fully with us in providing us with the information or documentation we require in order to assess and confirm your eligibility or continued eligibility for the Scholarship, providing full information on the sources of any external funding you secure for your Programme, enrolling each academic year, making satisfactory progress on your Programme, ensuring that your conduct and behaviour on and off campus is in keeping with and befitting of one of our scholarship holders, carrying out an ambassadorial role and paying all amounts due to us as and when they fall due.

5 Our responsibility to you

5.1 If we breach these terms or are negligent, we are liable to you for foreseeable loss or damage that you suffer as a result. By 'foreseeable' we mean that, at the time the agreement was made, it was either clear that such loss or damage would occur, or you and we both knew that it might reasonably occur, because of something we did (or failed to do).

5.2 We are not liable to you for any loss or damage that was not foreseeable, any loss or damage not caused by our breach or negligence, or any business loss or damage.

5.3 Nothing in these terms excludes or limits our liability for any death or personal injury caused by our negligence, liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any other liability that the law does not allow us to exclude or limit.

6 Paying back your Scholarship

6.1 In addition to us terminating your Scholarship, you will be liable to pay us back on demand, the whole or any part of the Scholarship that you have already received from us in any of the circumstances set out in clause 7.2.3 to 7.2.6 below.

7 Expiry and Termination of Scholarship

7.1 Unless your Scholarship is terminated early under this agreement, it will end as follows:

7.1.1 For scholarships awarded for each year of study, by the end of the Programme following standard progression; and

7.1.2 For scholarships awarded for the first year of entry to that Programme, by the end of that academic year.

You will be liable to pay the usual tuition fees for your Programme as an overseas student when the Scholarship ends.

7.2 We may terminate your Scholarship by sending you a written notice in accordance with clause 16 , to take effect on the date of that termination notice:

7.2.1 where we are of the reasonable view that you have not met your obligations under this Scholarship.

7.2.2 where your tuition fees for your Programme are not paid to us on time. Failure to pay your tuition fees to us, when they are due will also lead to termination of your programme under our Fees, Charges and Expenses Regulations.

7.2.3 If you are found to have committed a serious breach of our Regulations Governing Student Discipline (Available as part of the University Calendar at <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/calendar/sectioniv/index.page>), a serious breach of our Academic Integrity Regulations (This is where the sanctions applied are at regulation 5.4.5 or above in the Academic Integrity Regulations.) or your fitness to practise is impaired within the meaning of regulation 11.2.4, 11.2.5 and 11.2.6 in section A of our Regulations Governing Fitness to Practise.

7.2.4 If we are of the reasonable view that you have provided us with incomplete, untrue, incorrect, or misleading information or documentation in any material respect with reference to this Scholarship or your studies with us.

7.2.5 where we are of the reasonable view that you have committed fraud or you are a person subject to sanctions.

7.2.6 If you did not declare a criminal conviction to us in circumstances where entry to your Programme or continued enrolment on your Programme required such a declaration to be made.

7.3 Your Scholarship will terminate immediately and without the need for written notice:

7.3.1 If you do not start your Programme at the start of your expected entry to your Programme in the 2025 academic year, for any reason, including deferral.

7.3.2 If you are already in receipt of external funding which would pay for your tuition fees in full or when combined with the Scholarship would equate to more than the full cost of your tuition fees for your Programme. In the latter case, we will first utilise your external funding towards your tuition fees and apply a reduced Scholarship to the remainder of your tuition fees for your Programme.

7.3.3 On the date your programme of study is terminated, or you are deemed to have withdrawn from the University under our Transfer, Suspension, Withdrawal and Termination Regulations .

7.3.4 On the last date available for you to enrol or re-enrol in any subsequent academic year where you fail to do so.

7.3.5 On the effective date of a change to your programme of your study with us if you have not received written confirmation from us that your scholarship may be transferred to your new programme of study.

7.4 If your Scholarship terminates early under clauses 7.2 or 7.3, any portion of your Scholarship reflecting as a fee waiver falling due on or after that date of termination, will be removed from your student account and you will be liable to pay the usual tuition fees for your Programme as an overseas student from the date of termination of your Scholarship.

8 Events beyond our control

8.1 We are not liable to you if we fail to comply with these terms because of circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

9 Your information

9.1 Any personal information that you provide to us will be dealt with in line with our Privacy Policies for applicants available at <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/privacy-notice-applicant.page> and for students available at <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/studentadmin/student-admin/privacy-notice.page>, which explains what information we collect and hold about you, and how we collect, store, use and share such information.

10 No third-party rights

10.1 No one other than us or you have any right to enforce any of these terms.

11 Transfer of rights

11.1 We may transfer our rights under these terms to another business without your consent, but we will notify you of the transfer and make sure that your rights are not adversely affected as a result.

11.2 You are not allowed to transfer your rights under these terms to anyone.

12 Complaints

12.1 If you are unhappy with how your Scholarship is administered or any decision that we take under these terms which affects you as a student, then you may submit a complaint to us under our Regulations Governing Student Complaints (Available as part of the University Calendar at <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/calendar/sectioniv/index.page.>).

13 Severability

13.1 If any provision or part-provision of this agreement is or becomes invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal, and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of this agreement.

14 Conflict

14.1 If there is an inconsistency between any of the provisions of this agreement and the provisions of your offer letter, the provisions of this agreement shall prevail.

15 Entire agreement

15.1 This agreement, together with our criteria for scholarships and your application documentation to us, constitutes the entire agreement between us in respect of the Scholarship and supersedes and extinguishes all previous and contemporaneous agreements, promises, assurances, and understandings between us, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter, except for your offer letter as varied by this agreement.

15.2 Neither of us will have any remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance, or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this agreement, save as mentioned in this agreement.

16 Notices and legal proceedings

16.1 You agree that we may send any notice or other communication we are required to give to you under or in connection with this agreement to you by (i) email to your university email account or (ii) delivered by hand or (iii) by post to your term-time address that you provide to us for your student records. This does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action which may be served in any manner permitted by law.

17 Governing law and Jurisdiction

17.1 This letter, and the contract arising out of your acceptance of the Scholarship on the terms and conditions set out in this letter, shall be governed by, and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of England.

17.2 You irrevocably agree that, apart from any independent review of your complaint by the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education, the courts of England are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute that may arise out of, or in connection with, this agreement and that, accordingly, any suit, action or proceedings (together in this clause referred to as proceedings) arising out of, or in connection with, this agreement may be brought in such courts.
